

Draft 5/19/2019

Announcing a Student Workshop on
Creating an outstanding career:
Secrets of success for psychology students

Tuesday, 18 June 2019, 6-8 pm

Fordham University, 113 W. 60 St., NYC, room 1022

"How can psychology students and recent graduates best prepare for a solid career?" In May of 2019, thousands of psychology students asked this question, as they graduated from 80 schools across New York City.

Here, the Manhattan Psychological Association partners with NYC chapters of Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology, to host a workshop, where 6 experts speak 10 minutes each, to guide students on how to create a solid career before and after graduation.

Program

Chair: ??Dean Elaine Congress, Fordham University

Welcome: Len Davidman, Past-President, Manhattan PA

Developing career skills Jason R. Young, Past-President, Psi Chi

??Preparing for success Roxanne Moadel-Attie, U.S. Census Bureau

Volunteering for success Elizabeth Hensler, www.iMentor.com

??Acing tests and GREs ?Erin McLean, www.KapTest.com

Networking for success Harold Takooshian, President, Manhattan PA

Finding jobs with a Ψ BA/BS ?Cheretta Robson, Fordham Career Services

Reception and refreshments at 5:30-6 pm

 Fee of $15 includes the reception, one year membership in MPA, and a handout on "Resources for success." This Student Forum is hosted by Fordham University Psi Chi, in cooperation with the Manhattan Psychological Association, and the APA Division of Social Issues. For any details: www.mpapsych.org, or takoosh@aol.com
RSVP by June 14:

About scholarships, check: www.psychology.org/scholarships/
About masters degrees: www.psychology.org/degrees/masters/
About psychology careers: www.learnpsychology.org/psychology-major-job-guide/
About on-line programs: www.bestcolleges.com/features/best-online-masters-psychology-programs/

Jason: “How to highlight the skill sets you acquired in your psychology major”
<https://www.apa.org/ed/precollege/ptn/2019/03/workforce-ready-skills>
<https://www.apa.org/ed/precollege/psn/2019/02/skillful-student>

DRAFT: "How can psychology students and recent graduates best prepare for a solid career?" In addition to traditional ways (high grades, research, an internship), one easy and effective way is to network, by joining a professional organization.

The Manhattan Psychological Association is described at www.mpapsych.org. MPA welcomes students at a discounted rate of $15/year. This includes free entry into its many NYC activities, including a few activities specifically for students--on careers and graduate schools. Attached FYI is a list of over 20 cosponsored MPA events from spring of 2018. To join on-line, simply check:

DRAFT: "How can psychology students and recent graduates best prepare for a solid career?" In May of 2019, thousands of psychology students asked this question, as they graduated from 80 schools across New York City.

Here, the Manhattan Psychological Association partners with NYC chapters of Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology, to host a workshop with 6 experts to guide students on how to create a solid career before and after graduation.

topics: publishing, networking, interns, research, post-psychology careers, social media,